No More Sunday Ball Playing to be Allowed in Cincinnati.

THE RESULTS OF ALL OF THE GAMES

Pittsburg was beaten yesterday, and by that fact and the victory of Indianapolis, is once more in seventh place. New York defeated Cleveland and, therefore, is still ahead of Boston. The Giants play here to-

Without exception, some of the players belonging to the Pittsburg club have kinder hearts and more regard for their fellow players than is often lound among the ordinary run of humanity.

On Tuesday last one J. Galvin, Esq., made a great and unequaled record for himself. During the past two months the record of the aforesaid Mr. Galvin had been slightly bedimmed, and the luster that surrounded his name was growing cloudy. On Tuesday he emerged from the cloud with a bright, sparkling brilliancy that cast its refulthose who came within the light that shone forth. He was the king of all his fellow play

That one time easy mark, Gentleman John Clarkson, with the New Castle, Lawrence county Bennett, did duty in the points for the visitors. Although hit more frequently than Philadelphias. Sowders, Clarkson managed to keep them His support was good, while on the other hand Sowders was rather wild, five bases on balls and a wild pitch being part of his

Then again his support was rather rank. Even Beckley, who generally gathers in every-thing that comes in the vicinity of the initial bag, making some bad breaks. The audience was a kindly one, numbering about 1,000 people, and was disposed, a fter the great game of the previous day, to cheer anything that came. Their enthusiasm was all extracted at an early stage in the game, however, and did not have a chance to bubble forth at any other time during the afternoon. Mr. Curry, who is hired to ing the afternoon. Mr. Curry, who is hired to give decisions behind the plate, was very off color, and had he seen some things as other people saw them, the score might not have been as one-sided as it was.

In the first inning Beckley made two bad errors that gave a man first and then a moment later advanced him to third, but fortunately he got no further. In the second infing, after Johnston was retired at first by Kuehne, Brown gut a single of a very scratchy order to right and them stole second. Smish's sacrifice out at first advanced Brown to third. Bennett got a base on balls and stole second. Clarkson singled to ceater and brought both Brown and Bennett over the plate.

A BAD FUMBLE.

A BAD FUMBLE.

Richardson singled to center and Carroll fumbled the ball so long that Richardson got to second and Clarkson scored. Kelly got a base on balls, and Nash closed the inning by a fly into deep center field that was tair and square for Carroll's hands. The big fielder, however; made a rank muff of it, and the bail however; made a rank muff of it, and the ball rolled away behind him. Before the sphere was retirned to the infield Brouthers was resting on third base, and a moment later a wild pitch allowed him to cross the plate.

In the sixth inning Brown got a base on balls and then committed larceny on the second hag, scoring on Smith's double to right. The latter scored on Bennett's single to left center. Clarkson's double to left brought Bennett home. Richardson's single to right advanced Clarkson to second. Duniap's error let Clarkson get to third and the latter scored on Kelly's fly 10 Maul.

The visitors got their last run in the seventh.

After Johnston flew out to Rowe. Brown got a base on balls and scored on "Pop" Smith's

PITTSBURG'S ONLY BUNS

were made in the seventh inning. Dunlan opened with a single to center. He was advanced a base by another single to center by Sowders. Both men were moved on a base by Miller's out at first. They both scored on a daisy three-bagger to right that Carroll knocked out. Then Rowe died at first, and Beckley's single to left brought Carroll home with the final run, Maul's fly to Johnson retiring the

Thus the thirteenth game of the season between the Pittsburg and Boston clubs was ended, and whatever bad luck was attached to the number had fallen with full force on the local contingent.

The Cleveland Crowd Finds Fault With the

Work of Powers. CLEVELAND, August 14.—There was an ex-citing scene at the ball grounds this afternoon, McAleer, for the Clevelands, in the fourth inning, drove a ball to left field. He ran like a deer and reached second base in plenty of time. Powers, the umpire, also ran to second, and seeing McAleer safe on the base returned to the home plate. There he was informed by "Buck" Ewing that McAleer had failed to touch first base, and he promptly called the runner out. The pavilion was crowded and nearlyjevery man in it arose at once. "Ride plumped into the need and started in the direction of Powers. Three policemen with drawn clubs and all the members of the Cleveland bad team hastened forward, and by sharp talk and some force drove the indiguant spectators back. The field, in the meantime was filling up, and 500 men were yelling their opinion of the umpire in chorus, and a hundred of them were shaking their fists and brandishing their canes at him.

For ten minutes it seemed that a riot was certain, but Powers finally called the game and retired to a room under the grand stand. When he was out of sight the anger of the pavilion spectators cooled down, and on his return in a quarter of an hour he was merely assailed with words. The pavilion is directly opposite first base, and those occupying seats in it saw the play that indirectly caused the row. McAleer was the first man at the bat, and the score was 2 to 3 in favor of the New Yorks. It was the fourth inning, and as it was sprinkling and the sky was black with clouds it looked as if the game would be called at the end of the next inning. Score:

LOUISVILLE, August 14.-Baltimore had the game won from the start to-day. They bunched hits on Ewing in spite of the good work on his part, and were helped out whenever it seemed necessary by Louisville's errors. Cunningham pitched well, scattering the ten hits made off him, and was handsomely supported throughout. Goldsmith had a policeman put a man out for hooting. KANSAS CITY, August 14.-Yesterday's scor with the Brooklyns was repeated to-day. The game was brilliant throughout and was characterized by sharp playing at critical points. Otherwise the game was almost faultless, the errors all occurring in handling difficult balls. Score:

NO MORE SUNDAY GAMES.

Cincinnati Has Joined the Ranks of the Law and Order Towns.

CINCINNATI, August 14.—The Superintend ent of Police having notified theatrical and baseball managers that Sunday performances and baseball games will not hereafter be per-mitted, Manager Stern to-day called on Mayor mitted, Manager Stern to-day called on Mayor Mosby to ask permission to play the remaining four games that are scheduled here for Sundaya. The Mayor made a positive refusal, and told him that real bona fide arrests of managers and players would be made on the spot if games were attempted.

The theatrical managers all say they will not oppose the law, and most of them are glad of its enforcement. They say they can make more money by six days' performances during the week than by seven. All they want is assurance that all will be served alike.

LATHAM IS WORTH MONEY.

The St. Louis Manager Values Him at Over $100,000.

PRECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. LOUISVILLE, August 14.—The Louisville Club has long wanted Arlie Latham, and efforts have been made time and again to socure him from St. Louis. The team here needs a captain and coacher worse than snything else, and Latham would fill the bill exactly. else, and Latham would fill the bill exactly.

Last night a telegram was sent to Von der Ahe asking him to name his terms for Arlie. Mr.

John Bateman, Secretary and Treasurer of the Louisville Baseball Club and temporary manager, received an answer this morning, it read:

"At present I would not sell Latham's release for $100,000." As the home managers had no intention of offering more than $1,000 Mr. Von der Ahe will have to keep his third baseman.

A few more acquisitions to the pitcher's box are now most needed by the Louisville club, and yesterday another addition was made. Whittaker, the young pitcher of the Baltimores, was secured, Manager Barnie releasing him to Louisville unconditionally. Whittaker has been telegraphed for, and will reach this city to-morrow, probably in time to go in against his former companions. Nat Hudson, the obstinate young pitcher who was secured in exchange for Tom Ramsey from the St. Louis Browns, will probably be sold to the Minneapolis Club.

THE RESULTS OF THE RUNNING RACES.

Yesterday was the second day of the circuit meeting at Rochester. Star Lily captured the principal event.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. 1 ROCHESTER, N. Y., August 14 .- When the second day of the Grand Circuit meet ing was ended the programme to date was entirely cleared, so that five events were deeided this afternoon. Last night it rained considerable, and this morning it was dark and cloudy. The sun came out about 1 o'clock, and it was warm and pleasant when the hour fixed for calling the trotters arrived Later in the day it grew cloudy again, a shower fell, and after that it was cold enough for October. Still there was no delay, and hea after heat was got off promptly by Presiden Archer, who found much smoother sailing in his position as starting judge than he had yes-terday. Only one race had been finished up to last evening, and the biggest prize of the week was still in doubt as to its disposition.

HOPING AGAINST HOPE. HOPING AGAINST HOPE.

Of the heat winners Star Lily and Sprague Golddust had the advantage in the summary, but there was a lingering hope that the fast gelding Veritas might prove a winner after all. The black gelding Ketch, who was handicapped by a bad driver yesterday, had a new and more skillful pilot in John Turner, and there was no telling what figure he might cut in the contest. Star Lily, however, proved the best of the horses left in the struggle, and a single heat settled the troubled question. Sprague Golddust was able to dispute the matter stoutly, and the pair had a race to their selves.

ter stoutly, and the pair had a race to therselves.

Both grew leg weary in the last part of the mile and it was largely owing to Goldsmith's resolution and will that the little mare held the lead. He rallied her with rein, voice and whip, and by a last supreme effort she reached the goal in time to capture the $5,000 which awaited the winner of three heats.

Star Lily has already attracted notice by her success at Buffalo last week when she defeated Reference. She inherits the blood of Rysdyk's Hambletonian and Seelv's American Star, the cross which produced Dexter and other fast and gone trotters. Her present owner, A. J. Welch, of Hartford, made a big winning here, and has already got more than twice the sum he paid for the mare a few weeks ago. Star Lily is only 5 years old, and here is quite as creditable a victory as that won by Jack in the same event here last year.

Proctor Knott and Salvator in a Badly MONMOUTH PARK, August 14.-Salvato

Monmouth Park, August 14.—Salvator and Proctor Knott were greatly distressed at the conclusion of their struggle for place honors in the race for the Omnibus stakes yesterday. The former could scarcely stagger to the paddock. Knott puffed and panted like a dog in dog days trembling violently, and was limber as a dishrag, but most distressed of all was Samuel Bryant. He seemed too broken-hearted to appreciate the sympathy of his friends.

"Knott ought to have won, Mr. Bryant," said a man who had backed him. "He was the best horse in the race."

a man who had backed him. "He was the best horse in the race."

"Well, we're beat, we're beat, my friend," moaned the owner of the pride of Kentucky. "We're beat. It can't be helped now."

"Don't you think Murphy waited too long?"

"Didn't wait at all. We're beat, my friend, and I've no excuse to make, but we'll hit 'em again, we'll hit 'em again,"

There was not a mark of whip or spur on Proctor Knott's heaving sides. "He did all he could do without punish ment. Eleven months ago in the Futurity, Proctor Knott, in a desperate finish with Salvator, beat him by a neck. Yesterday after just as hard a battle he beat him by a head. Longstreet, the winner, was comparatively fresh at the finish of the Omnibus.

MICHAEL F. DWYER ILL.

Was Unable to See Longstreet Win the SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1

NEW YORK, August 14.—Michael F. Dwyer is a pretty sick man at present. He was taken ill with intermittent bilious fever at Saratoga about two weeks ago, but in the latter part of last week he felt well enough to return to his residence near Prospect Park, Brooklyn, hoping to see Longstreet run for the Omnibus Stakes, which he felt certain the colt would win.

Mrs. Dwyer followed her husband with their children, expecting to see the race on Tuesday. Instead she found Mr. Dwyer sick in bed, and she is now nursing him. Mr. Dwyer has never been a strong man, and his present illness, while not yery serious, is the worst he ever had. He has not been able to retain food in his stomach for the past week, and his physician says that it may be a month before he will be able to attend to business again.

SECOND, WEEK OF THE GREAT CLEARANCE SALE ::

OF SUMMER GOODS AND SURPLUS STOCK AT THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

The great success attending this sale has induced us to add many additional bargains this week. We thank our friends and customers for their hearty response. We have more summer goods than we want yet, and to make it still more interesting we put into this sale a goodly number of every day, all-the-year-round goods at specially reduced prices.

The tremendous cut in prices has boomed the Dress Goods Department. Summer Dress Goods must go. Plenty of good goods and styles left yet. 75 pieces 40 to 46-inch all-wool and silk and wool stylish goods sold from $1 to $1 50, all at 50c. 100 pieces 30 to 36-inch Dress Goods, just the thing for school wear, worth 20c, for 121/2c. Several lots medium and dark- colored dress goods, half wool, strong materials, the very thing for children's dresses, 61/4c, 81/3c and 10c.

Departments, have been busy this week. It's the prices which do it. Not very profitable to us, at least in the meantime, but a good investment for you. You can buy Wash Goods from 3c to 25c a yard. The first is a cheap quality of CALICO, the latter the finest FRENCH SATINE that is made.
